

I have enjoyed much peace since registering for NJ's Do Not Call list. I never buy from telemarketers, so why should I have to put up with their calls? They can always call the people who welcome such calls. Please let NJ's Do Not Call law stand.